Genesee County Fair

Press Release

The 178th Genesee County Fair

The Genesee County Fair is seeking entrants to create mobile container gardens to be on display during the 178th Genesee County Fair, July 17th-22nd.

Batavia, NY, May 25, 2017:

It's time to get creative! The Container Garden Contest means it's time to get out, be more active, and use your green thumb to win bragging rights"! This contest is open to all residents, businesses and organizations of Genesee County. This year's Container Garden Contest theme is "Everything But the Kitchen Sink". You can grow herbs, vegetables, flowers, and indigenous plants in your container. You can show off your creativity at its finest! Put your dazzling decor items on display, including sculptures, fountains, and re-purposed works of art! Let imagination, creativity, and ingenuity triumph over size! Even with limited space, the possibilities are endless with containers. This contest is for both new and experienced gardeners. There's even a category for kids! Containers can be anything imaginable, as long as they are mobile such as, buckets, wheelbarrows, funky pots & upcycled/recycled items. So if you're ready to bring fresh, new life and beauty to your Genesee County Fair, then we say ... Grow For It! Entries must be received at the Fair on July 16th by 4pm and picked up on July 23rd by 4pm. Entries will be on display in the Exhibition Building during the week of Fair. Winners will be selected by members of the CCE Master Gardeners and Fairgoers votes.
